

Re typed September 2018

September 1969

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Reginald Bertram Sheath, who passed away on Thursday, 11th September, after a long illness very cheerfully borne.

Mr. Sheath joined the Company on 8th April 1958, as the senior salesman in the Men's Department at Uxbridge. During that time he was a tower of strength to Mr. Jones, the Men's Wear Buyer, as he acted as his deputy whilst the latter was absent. Not only did he look after a lot of the paperwork which is so necessary in any well-run department, but he looked after the customers in a most efficient and charming manner, which was very important to the enhancement of Suters interests, and one must say that he was insistent that the customers' as well as Suter's interest were his main occupation

Reginald Sheath had a very pleasing disposition, always cheerful and always ready to enjoy a joke and considering his deformity, he had always a ready smile.

He will be sadly missed by the staff and customers alike, and our sympathies go out to his wife and charming daughter at this sad time.

J.D.SUTER.

-----oOo-----

- 5 -

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Reginald Bertram Sheath, who passed away on Thursday, 11th September, after a long illness very cheerfully borne.

Mr. Sheath joined the Company on 8th April 1958, as the senior salesman in the Men's Department at Uxbridge. During that time he was a tower of strength to Mr. Jones, the Men's Wear Buyer, as he acted as his deputy whilst the latter was absent. Not only did he look after a lot of the paperwork which is so necessary in any well-run department, but he looked after the customers in a most efficient and charming manner, which was very important to the enhancement of Suters interests, and one must say that he was insistent that the customers' as well as Suter's interests were his main occupation.

Reginald Sheath had a very pleasing disposition, always cheerful and always ready to enjoy a joke and considering his deformity, he had always a ready smile.

He will be sadly missed by the staff and customers alike, and our sympathies go out to his wife and charming daughter at this sad time.

J.D. SUTER.

-----oOo-----