OUT OF TOWN! UXBRIDGE STAFF DINNER & DANCE

Mr. & Mrs. Michael and 60 guests, including Mr. & Mrs. David, Mr. & Mrs. Anthony, Mr. Auchenleck, who came from Norfolk, representing the Cottage Homes, and our former Store Detective, Mrs. Roe and her husband, who came all the way from Ipswich, attended our dinner and dance at the Lotus House in Cheshunt, Hert., on the 10th January 1972.

A coach took 38 of us; the others made their way by car.

The ladies all looked very elegant and did Suters fashion department proud.

Everybody dined, wined and danced happily to a good little band that had a busy time playing all the requests.

A raffle was held and the proceeds of £7.60 went to the Cottage Homes.

The many requests for another evening like this one indicated that everybody had a good time.
